

in this issue...

- Former Dean of Harvard Business School to Speak in Pleasanton, CA, on Saturday, April 24th at 6:00 pm
- 5 Leadership Skills that will Bring Success
- MACRS Recovery Periods
- Avoiding IRS Notice of Liens

5 Leadership Skills that will Bring Success

By Alan L. Olsen, CPA, MBS (Tax)
Managing Partner
Greenstein, Rogoff, Olsen & Co., LLP

Change is constant in a leader's life. A leader is always developing new ways in which they can improve, accomplish, and progress. Leadership skills are essential for success. If you desire to improve your leadership skills, the following tips will guide you in your efforts to become a better leader:

1. Think differently. If you are going to improve, you must be willing to change. Progress won't come if you keep turning to the past. Develop new ideas and be innovative. Success often comes through change.

Read on...

MACRS Recovery Periods

On GROCO 2009 MACRS Recovery Period Table you will find the General Depreciation System for types of property such as: Computers and their peripheral equipment, Office machinery, Automobiles, Light trucks & heavy trucks, Appliances used in rental property, Carpets, Furniture used in rental property, Office furniture and equipment, Roads, Shrubbery, Fences, Additions and improvements, such as a new roof, Commercial Real Estate, and much more.

View now...

Avoiding IRS Notice of Liens

Having an overdue tax bill may lead to severe problems. Understanding the IRS collections process may help to steer you out of harm's way.

What is a lien?

When a tax payer owes money to the IRS, the IRS can file a tax lien against them. A lien is a legal claim that the IRS issues on the taxpayer's property to satisfy the debt owed. The debt is not just the taxes owed, but interest and penalties assessed. The lien can be filed when the IRS sends a taxpayer a notice of payment and the taxpayer does not respond to it within 10 days. (www.irs.gov)

Read on...

IRS Circular 230 disclosure: To ensure compliance with requirements imposed by the IRS, we inform you that any U.S. federal tax advice contained in this document is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of (i) avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code or (ii) promoting, marketing or recommending to another party any transaction or matter that is contained in this document.

Former Dean of Harvard Business School to Speak in Pleasanton, CA, on Saturday, April 24th at 6:00 pm

President Kim B. Clark will speak at the "2010 Distinguished Public Service Award Dinner"

Greenstein, Rogoff, Olsen & Co., LLP, (GROCO) is proud to join friends of the Harvard Business School, the BYU Management Society and others to cordially invite you to attend this year's fascinating "2010 Distinguished Public Service Award Dinner" honoring President Kim B. Clark.

Alan L. Olsen, Managing Partner of GROCO, stated; "President Clark is one of our countries most influential business leaders". He joined the Harvard faculty in 1978 and served as Dean of the Faculty at Harvard Business School from 1995 to 2005. He received B.A. (1974), M.A. (1977), and Ph.D. (1978) degrees in economics from Harvard University. In 2005 he left Harvard Business School (HBS) to accept the role of President at Brigham Young University- Idaho.

While at HBS, important innovative new initiatives were launched, in entrepreneurship, information technology, globalization, Leadership and Values.

Read on...

Upcoming Due Dates

Upcoming Tax and Accounting Deadlines

Join our mailing list!