Don't Panic! Eight Things to Know If You Receive an IRS Notice

The Internal Revenue Service sends millions of letters and notices to taxpayers every year. Here are eight things taxpayers should know about IRS notices - just in case one shows up in your mailbox.

1. Don't panic. Many of these letters can be dealt with simply and painlessly.

2. There are a number of reasons why the IRS might send you a notice.

Notices may request payment of taxes, notify you of changes to your account, or request additional information. The notice you receive normally covers a very specific issue about your account or tax return.

Persistence - Use Good Judgment

Nothing in the world can take the place of Persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent. The slogan "Press On" has solved and always will solve the problems of the human race. - Calvin Coolidge

As you work on almost anything, your motivation ebbs and flows. But motivation does not produce results - action does. Persistent action even when you don't feel motivated will accumulate results. Even when you're not that motivated, if you simply keep taking action, you'll eventually get results, and results can be very motivating.

5 Steps to Financial Success

If you did a study of millionaires, you would find a common number of steps that it is necessary for them to make their fortune. These steps are not secrets or are only available to a few. These steps can be started by you, Today!

Step 1: Think like a Millionaire.

The first step towards financial abundance is to think like a millionaire. Millionaires have a different set of core beliefs and habits that enable them to see setbacks and failures differently from the average person. They are able to see opportunities and act on them, and gain valuable learning experiences along the way. You will need to develop the same positive core beliefs and habits to see the huge amount of financial opportunities that are available around you.
